CUMULATIVE SUBJECT INDEX to SELECTED ARTICLES FROM PERIODICALS

The periodical articles listed in this cumulative index are selected from the quarterly issues of Review of Current Military Writings for the year 1927-1928. Not all articles indexed in the four issues of this School publication are included herein; the articles selected are confined to those of military interest which are probably of continuing value in some degree.

The new books and documents accessioned by the Library during the same period are listed in the 1928 Supplement to Library Catalog.
